About This Tour

This adventure begins in Tbilisi and leads you along the dramatic Georgian Military Highway. You'll stop at the serene Jinali Reservoir and the impressive Ananuri Fortress before climbing into the high Caucasus at Gudauri. From Stepantsminda, you'll hike to the legendary Gergeti Trinity Church, resting overnight surrounded by mountain peaks. The journey continues with a scenic trek in Juta, one of Georgia's most picturesque alpine villages, followed by another night in Stepantsminda. Next, you explore the wild beauty of Truso Valley—with its mineral springs, abandoned villages, and open landscapes. After days filled with mountain air and unforgettable views, you return to Tbilisi for your departure.
